

Learning is a human right.
L'apprentissage est un droit de la personne.

Learning transforms and empowers. Learning enhances quality of life.
Learning helps build vibrant and inclusive communities.
Learning promotes and sustains human rights.

Government of Alberta

Learn more about your rights and responsibilities under Alberta's human rights law.

- Visit www.albertahumanrights.ab.ca
- Call the Alberta Human Rights and Citizenship Commission confidential inquiry line
Edmonton: 780-427-7661 TTY: 780-427-1597 Calgary: 403-297-6571 TTY: 403-297-5639
To call toll-free from other Alberta locations, first dial 310-0000.

For information on community adult learning and literacy programming:

- Visit www.aet.alberta.ca/community.aspx
- For information about training, education and career services:
- Visit the Alberta Learning Information Service at www.alis.alberta.ca
- Call the Alberta Career Information Hotline
Edmonton: 780-422-4266 To call toll-free from other Alberta locations, dial 1-800-661-3753.